EATON'S ARITHMETIC.

BANGOR, Oct. 30, 1858

At a meeting of the School Committee, held this evening, it was

ORDERED—That EATON'S ARITHMETIC be introduced into our Intermediate, Grammar and Select Schools, instead of Greenleaf's, now in use. Attest:
(Signed) FRED'K. E. SHAW, Sec'y.

The decided satisfaction which this book gives in the school-room, and its unprecedented success, prove that it is a work of rare merit.

All those who are dissatisfied with the books now in use, are requested to give this an examination.

They will find it the most clear, concise, logical and practical treatise on written Arithmetic extant, following as it does the plan of Colburn's First Lessons—the two make a complete and popular series

Copies furnished for examination on receipt of postage—15 cents—on application to

Bangor, Jan'y 20, 1859 2wd

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Maine, in Legislature assembled, January, 1859.

THE undersigned, inhabitants of Houlton and vicinity, in the county of Aroostook, beg leave respectfully to represent, that there is great need of a communication by railroad from said County to the seaboard, and that the most easy and convenient mode of obtaining such communication is by connecting said town of Houlton with the St. Andrews and Quebec Railroad, which will probably be completed during the next season to a point within six miles of said Houlton.

Therefore the undersigned pray that they, their associates, successors and assigns, may be incorporated by the name of "Aroostook, St. Andrew's Branch Railroad Company," with the power, and for the purpose of building a Railroad from any point they may select in said town of Houlton to any point on the East line of the State, and by any route said Company may prefer, with a view of connecting with said St. Andrew's and Quebec Road, and that said Company may have all the privileges and immunities usually granted to such corporations.

DR. HOBENSACK'S
Worm Syrup and Liver Pills.

PROBABLY one reason why Worm Medicines so frequently fail of any good effect, is the fact that they contain no qualities except as Worm Killers Consequently in many instances where we mistake the symptoms of disease and doctor for worms, when the cause of disease is not worms, but a derangement of the system and consequent debility and ill health, no good result follows, whereas in the use of Dr. Hobensack's medicine, it being an active remedial agent, as well as worm killer, the patient immediately gets well, though no worms are brought away.

Thus it will be readily seen that it possesses many advantages over other worm medicines, as it is not only sure to kill and bring away the worms, but builds up and restores the patient to general health, besides.

Many persons suffer severely by sore or weak eyes The reflection of the sun on the snow almost blinds them, their eyes water when they are exposed to a slight wind, or have to travel or ride in the open air, a strong light blinds them, they suffer a smarting, burning sensation, as if dust was thrown in the eye, they are unable to read or write by gas or lamp light. All these troubles can usually be remedied by the use of BLACKWOOD FOR JANUARY. Leonard Scott & Co, New York.

"Maga" opens the new year with a most attractive number. Bulwer's master piece, "What will he do with it"—is brought to a satisfactory conclusion. Darrell and Lady Mountfort, Lionel and Sophy, are all made happy, and the intense anxiety of the millions who have read this famous novel is relieved. We trust Sir Edward, who, of late years, gives all his literary labors to the public through the pages of Blackwood, has something new in store for us as good as the inimitable work he has just completed. "Burmah and the Burmese" is a review of "A Narrative of the Mission of the Governor General of India to the Court of Ava," with notices of the country, government, and people. "A Cruise in Japanese Waters" is continued with unflagging interest, giving us a will for her insight into the manners, morals, customs, etc, of the people of Japan

We are pleased to notice that Blackwood, this month, is printed on much better paper than we have ever before seen, and the publishers assure us that this improvement will continue

BEECHER ON BURNS.—We make the following extracts from the remarks of Henry Ward Beecher, at the Cooper Institute celebration of the Centennial Anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns

"As no man ever attempted to make a saint of Burns, no one need dispute his no gal excellencies, and no man need write anything of his weaknesses. No judgment could add anything to the effectiveness of the condemnation of himself which eclipsed his joy and ended his career. Yet no man could keep his company and not feel his power. His letters were as wonderful as his poems, though it is said his conversation even excelled both. The lecturer expressed a wish that there might have been some Boswell who could have preserved those conversations to be read now, but there was no spot or event for the last hundred years which had not been crowded with memories. His foot-prints, now one hundred years old, were warm. He could not muster gotten pounds to save him from ruin. Dead, he had made the world rich. His life was a failure until he died, and ever since it had been a marvellous success. He had scattered his thoughts over all the earth, and could he have known the future, it would have saved his heart many ignoble struggles of his life, for now there was nothing left to give—for the spirit road kings and princes. His poems went as inseparable companions of the Scot wherever he went—and where was there a land on the earth where the Scotchman did not go? Scotland was known as much by her poet Burns as by all her sons beside.

"The time in which Burns lived was one in which liberty in civil things had just arisen, and religion into form, yet no man in all that period, was a more intense apostle to liberty than was Burns. It did not dwell in a soft impractical theories or philosophical speculation. It scarcely touched the external forms. It went to the root of all things—the ineradicable worth of man. As a child of God, he had no enmity against kings or nobles, if they were men; but he bore with no, with all the horrility of the apostle and power of the poet, to the fundamental doctrine that essential manhood is the only greatness and that nothing can exalt a man but himself. Throughout his whole life this love for man was eminent. No tenderer heart ever created the sufferer. The mean who read Burns in the nursery would never have their rise in the Parliament House."

A very singular fact is stated to us by a friend. He has two horses in a new warm stable, where they are kept every ... Two strange cats of the vicinity resolving to share these good quarters with the larger quadrupeds are in the habit of coming in to the barn and taking their places on the backs of the horses. In mild weather they sleep each one on one of the horses, but in very cold nights the two have been huddled together on the back of one of the horses, perfectly content and not disturbing the true occupants of the stable. Thus they secured warmth and comfort.—New Bedford Mercury

SINGULAR ACCIDENT. The Washington correspondent of the Boston Traveller gives the following account of an accident that recently happened in that city. "One of the most singular accidents on record happened here a night or two ago. John W. Burr, the son of the late editor, and present Washington correspondent of the Charleston (S. C.) Mercury, on returning late to his boarding house, found the door locked and his night key missing, and thereupon attempted to scale the high picket fence. After he gained the top of the fence, his foot must have slipped, for he fell in such a manner that his neck caught between two of the pickets, catching his head in such a way that the weight of the fall broke his neck, and left him hanging in that position. The most singular portion of the incident is, that the dog of the deceased, in attempting to assist his master, had torn almost all the clothing from the corpse, and when it was discovered in the morning, the clothes in rags, were scattered round on the pavement, and the dog was still trying to dislodge the body.

Our correspondent at Lawrence, Kansas, writes to us that the barber at that capital is a black man, a slave of Judge Elmore, and that his Excellency, Gov. Medary, recently went to his shop to be shaved. Just before Tom (that is the barber's name) got the official by the nose, that functionary, who adds economy to his many other virtues, said:—"Look here, I want you to shave me by the month." Well, massa, I don't know, massa, stammered Tom, hesitatingly. "Wall, why I may sot, Tom?" "Well, massa Gobernor, I don't mean no dis rispect, but dee, all the Gobernors ob dis Territory don't stay here but so a sort, and dey run away so fast, and I'se not sure dat you be here a mont; and so, you see I don't know; massa!" —N. Y. Tribune

A Candid Southern Opinion. The Baltimore Patriot, one of the ablest of the conservative organs of the South, recently had the following language in relation to Senator Seward. Considering that the eulogium thus passed upon the distinguished and favorite son of the Empire State was penned 1 deliberate and full view of the fact that Mr Seward is very likely to be the Republican candidate for the Presidency in 1860, and that he is acceptable to the most earnest and determined men of the party of freedom—considering these circumstances, we say, it is indicative not only of a growing spirit of candor in the Southern press, but also of a growing confidence in and respect for the Republican leaders, which may, we hope, induce our Southern brethren to look at length with trustful equanimity upon the approaching induction of a Republican President. They may rest assured, indeed that not only Mr. Seward, but any other Republican who may be nominated and elected, would administer the government in strict accordance with the constitution, and at the same time in entire conformity with the reserved rights of the States, so anxiously cared for in times past by the Southern politicians.

The Patriot, in speaking of Presidential candidates, referred as follows to the Senator from New York.

Mr Seward is, without a doubt, one of the most remarkable statesmen of the age and of this country. Of vast culture and acquirements; of shrewd, clear-eyed, broad-visioned and thoroughly philosophic intellect; of a temper and temperament singularly self-possessed—dignified and serene—combining in an extraordinary degree the shrewdness of the politician with the benevolence of the philanthropist—of spotless life and character—of perfect consistency in his whole course, and heroic fearlessness in utterance of his sentiments, William H. Seward stands to-day on an historic eminence which few other living public men now occupy.

Mr Seward is one of those rare sons of centuries who leaves no man indifferent about him, but makes every man either his enemy or his devoted friend.

LEGISLATURE OF MAINE.

Among the petitions presented were eight or ten from different towns in Somerset county that Skowhegan may be made the shire town of that county.

A Modern Epic.

The Adjutant General's Report has been done into poetry by an eastern bard, and given to the world by our cotemporaries of the Machias Republican, is fully equal in military fervor and martial eloquence to the official document itself. It is altogether too rich to lose; and we must therefore give our readers a taste or two of its quality. The subject is one well calculated to stir the genius of poetry—and it will be perceived that Pegasus is put through by the bard at a 2 40 pace. Our extracts are necessarily brief—and taken from different parts of the poem.

Belfast.

Scared by the clang of arms, Belfast awoke,
The seventeenth of June, that glorious day,
When thundered Bunker's Hill, 'mid fire and smoke,
Defiance to the pride of British sway.

Standing at Holmes' bar-room door, methought
I saw immortal Warren's shade pass by,
And from his lips my ears these accents caught,
"Sweet native land, for thee 'tis sweet to die."

The Portland Light Guards on Penobscot's banks,
With Captain B. F. Kendall at their head,
As previously arranged, formed serried ranks,
And there the Belfast Greys, gallantly led
By Captain Marshall, in a proper style,
Received their comrades, while Captain James G. Swett,
With heavy ordnance, and in glittering file,
Led on his Brewer troops, and there was met
By Cunningham's, while peal on peal
Thundered the salvos of the welcome free.
Which made afar the shattered welkin reel,
And boomed the shout, 'FOREVER LIBERTY!'

Battalions formed, tooted the Portland Band,
And to the camp ground marched the proud array,
Where tents and marquees fleck the level land,
To rest the heroes at the close of day.

To dignify the scene, came to these diggins,
Brave Colonel Burns, and martial Colonel Stodder,
Of Portland he, and Norcross, and she Higgins,
Of Bangor both, and Colonels of first order.

And now in many evolutions wheeled
The glittering battalions, file on file,
Till scientific glory crowns the field,
And all the loafers on the fences smile.

But when at twelve the welcome signal gun
Announced the grateful hour of rest and rations,
Fast round the table genial greetings run,
And men with men stand in the best relations.

By two o'clock the troops had taken their fodder,
And every soldier donned his warlike rigging,
And marched in handsome style, reviewed by Stodder,
Norcross assisting him, and doughty Higgins.

When Colonel Stodder had achieved these feats,
He put his troops in route of march, and swept
Through beauteous Belfast's boy thronged streets,
While to the drum beat burnished leather stept.

The fervid sun had now begun to wane,
The lengthened shadows told the dying day,
Muskets were stacked, and helmets, clasped in pain
On burning brows, were loosed, and quiet lay
The cap and nodding plume, and like June rain
O'er unknit brows the evening breezes play.

"There was a sound of revelry by night,"
In gilded halls with arms and banners hung,
And sylph like forms, in fleecy robes bedight,
Like garlands of rich flowers graceful flung
About the arms of strong and stolid men,
In whirling waltz and many polkas swung,
Till morning's finger on the walls again
Tapped the small hours, and called, away, away

* * * * * *

Belfast Encampment.

The rampant sun with flaming hair
Just risen from his Eastern lair
Began night's curtain dark to tear
On August's latent morn;
And next the murky vapors leapt
That, where Penobscot's waters slept
In stealthy silence landward crept,
And bathed the fields of corn.

The long expected day had come,
When squeaking fife and battered drum
And volleying musketry and rumbling cannon split the sky,
When bayonets of two full brigades
Should glitter mid the flashing blades,
And plumes should wave on thousand heads,
And thousand hearts beat high

At seven o'clock that prince of steamers,
Flapping the air with all her streamers,
Yelling like fiends with all her screamers,
THE WEBSTER swept to town.
Upon her decks in proud array
The Fourth Division stood that day,
While well dressed bands in concert play
The March of Washington.

Now fast upon the sight enlarges
THE TRITON, with a train of barges,
Breasting all gallantly the surges,—
Around her smoke pipes cluster
The Ninth Division; we say, and risk it,
As brave a set as e'er broke biscuit,
Or poised a lance or aimed a musket,
Or trained on General Muster.

* * * * * *

A series then of evolutions,
Brilliantly done with no confusions,
Made certain that no diminutions
Of martial skill were seen,
While Norcross, head of the brigade,
(Tilson of Rockland him did aid,)
Did up at sunset dress parade,
And showed himself not green

And now dismissed with courteous thanks,
The companies in unbroken ranks
To rough repose all sought their bunks,
And snored the regiment.
At eight next morn the busy hum,
The bugle's blast and roll of drum,
Announced the hour of action come,
And thrills through stout hearts sent.

* * * * * *

Meantime what movements Church street saw,
What crowds of urchins thither draw
With eyes out-sticking and with awe
Listing the trumpets blare!
For here a gallant proud array,
With leaders splendid as the day
All in embattled order lay
Upon the public square.

Arrived before the line brigade
Halted the escort cavalcade,
And standing with uncovered head
The soldiers met their chief.
"PRESENT ARMS!" in bugle tones,
That thrilling went through each man's bones,
Pealed from the lips, firm set like stones
Of Burns in order brief.

We introduce His Excellence
To officers, the State's defence,
The on-looking concourse was immense,
And gave convincing evidence,
(If there were any need)
Ten thousand eyes with pleasure glancing,
And standards waved and feathers dancing,
The charming bands and horses prancing,
And other things of which we can't sing,
That he was chief indeed.

* * * * * *

What pageant now salutes our eyes?
What horsemen clad in warlike guise,
Like Bayard and his knights arise
Upon the tented field?
'Tis peerless Morrill with his suite,
Spurning the grass with flashing feet,
Go, Tilson, forth your chief to meet,
And to him homage yield.

The bugles of the band out sounded,
Forth from the line the troopers bounded
To meet his Excellence, surrounded
With the brave and proud cortege.
Six cannon to the muzzle crammed,
Six stalwart men beside them tramped,
The welcome peal that rocked the camp
Announced the elected liege.

With highest honors of parade
The line received its martial head,
Gleamed swords, waved colors, bugles played
In cheering gratulation.
Cushman and Tilson both drew near,
Companions of his proud career;
From centre, flank and theme to rear,
And when again in station,

Passed in review the whole brigade,
And formed in crowded column stayed,
While he a martial speech essayed,
And silently tried their patience.
Wnen with each toils the hilly rests,
The city fathers' rich bequests
Call soldiers and the silver guests,
To festive mirth and rations.

Fully to tell forbids our space
How Fogy ambled through the grace
At table, where was Fessler's place
When trenchering first began,
If Davis took his fiery diet,
If Smith of pudding at of pie ate,
If Cushman noisy was, or quiet,
And what said General Heegan.

Bangor.

We think that we can truly say,
No contradiction fearing,
That troops are very scarce this way,
Or further side our clearing.
Beyond the mountains Rocky,
Or on the Atlantic coast,
Who are so mighty plucky,
Such native pride can boast,
As those who filly fill, the military line
Of regular Maine Militia, Division Number Nine.

On the first day of September,
We left them at Belfast,
Where bivouacked each member,
As long as grub did last;—
Then Bangorward all hurried,
Wiped their muskets and their brows,
And not the least bit flurried,
Nor the least bit in a drowse,
Read, on a thundering poster, "Encampment Grand at Bangor,
Attention the Battalion," without a bit of languor.

We lodged at the Bangor House,
A fine night in September,
And did ourselves next day arouse,
The twenty ninth, remember,
And saw that veteran company,
Brewer Artillery, Captain Swett,
Who poured a volley from one eye,
Which had a six pound gun met,
That very iron gun had melted in a trice,
And under both his eyes, it would have melted twice.

Trailing their heavy ordnance,
Along the street they wind,
A breach to open in advance,
And another breach behind.—
Then the Bangor Light Infantry,
Brave Bartlett was their chief,
Wheeled into rank most gracefully,
Panting beyond belief
Next Grattan Guards, in duty prompt, swept by in double quick,
Cheering six times for 'Markey,' three times for Saint Patrick.

Then Veazie, Orland and Carmel,
Came riflemen, a lot,
Captains Morris, Keyes and Hall,
(Died shots at a long shot,
And lively at a short one,)
Plumes drooped at easy call,
And boys who with "machines" run,
From Bucksport and Bangor all
In good equipments, (borrowed,) and uniforms, (their own,)
To these distinguished marks of courtesy were shown.

The whole Battalion then arrayed
By the accomplished Reynolds,
Was forth enroute by Norcross led,
Whose glorious roll no stain holds,
By Portland Military Band,
Preceded to Camp Kent,
In glittering file and order grand,
The stately pageant went

* * * * * *

The battalion was formed again,
At eight o'clock precise,
Augmented by a gallant train
Of volunteers so nice.
Charles Reynolds at their head,
And a gallant cavalcade
Followed them with heavy tread,
Captain Andrews, to parade
Ten full companies now lengthen out the martial line,
And in military splendor, the regiment doth shine.

Now Norcross, man of energy,
Higgins assisting, gallant pair,
Higgins Lieutenant Colonel, he,
Threw out their banners to the air,
And mingled in the fight
Madly they charge then madly flee,
Wheel to the left and right,
Attack, defend, each gallantly,
Performing feats of arms which teach the tender mind,
How courage dauntless and no danger, together are combined.

At ten o'clock, with every aid,
Whose full equipments shine,
Cushman the General, so surveyed
And marshalled the whole line,
Him, the roar of cannons greet,
And honors to rank due;
The men in evolutions neat,
Wheeling in column, passed review
Each man was now inspected, by the Inspector of Division,
After which each man dismissed, inspected his provision.

The wearied heroes now surveyed
A large amount of duty done,
And each the action still essayed,
To end as glorious as it was begun.
The troops were next thrown into column,
And marshalled into square,
And General Cushman very solemn,
Addressed them then and there,
With quivering lips, and not a little hoarse,
The venerable General gave the following discourse:

"Fellow Soldiers, brethren all,
I come to say adieu;
My term of service ends this fall,
And I must part from you
I know that I must lay aside,
The harness of the camp,
And never more in musters ride,
With trainers on the tramp,
Until the trump of Gabriel, the summons shall have pealed,
And we shall meet together, in Heaven's muster field.

Seven years ago, I did receive
A Major General's commission,
What soldiers were, you'd not believe:
I'll tell with your permission.
Then a mere handful of brave men,
Not more than half equipped,
Without a camp, of cotton, or canvass tent or old sail ripped.
Lay down upon the muster field, at setting of the sun,
And to keep off the chills of night, depended upon rum.

* * * * * * * *

Since I have been among you
My duty I have done,
And now about to leave you,
I thank you every one,
For courteous and kind you've been,
In conduct towards me;
I hope you will remember, when
The last of me you see,
To prosecute to final end, the object of my heart,
And now with one last sad Farewell, brave soldiers, we must part."

LOCAL AND MAINE NEWS.

Number Plates for Houses.—Mr. J. W. Lovell is getting up some beautiful double-plated numbers for private dwellings, to correspond with the silver-plated door-plates generally in use. They are made in a variety of sizes and shapes, and will be furnished at moderate prices, as we understand. Those wishing to have them applied to their houses can see specimens at Messrs. Fenno & Hale's store, on Main Street, where they will be for sale.

Supreme Judicial Court.

CUTTING J., presiding.

January 28th.

Benjamin Boardman, Jr., vs. John M. Plaisted. This action was arranged by the parties before going to the jury. The pl'ff was allowed to take judgment for one cent damages by paying deft. $500 and giving a receipt in full of all demands, each party paying his own costs.

January 29th.

Jona. R. Holt & als vs. Wm A. Blake et als. The defense set up in this case was, that defendants were not accountable for contracts made with Hilton, the publisher of the Bangor Journal; that they were simply trustees of certain property of the Journal office which was put into their hands. To sustain the defense they put in an agreement in writing between the defts., which the Court instructed the jury was evidence of the co-partnership. Counsel for defts. requested the Court to instruct the jury that, as defts. were not declared against as co-partners, the action must fail.—The Court declined to so instruct the jury and they rendered a verdict for the plffs. for $860,34

Chas. S. Crosby and Waterhouse for plffs.,
A. Sanborn for defts.

The Court, after running through the docket, dismissed the juries finally, and adjourned to Monday next.

Ladies Levee at Oldtown.—The Ladies of the Universalist Society of Oldtown gave a very pleasant and entertaining Levee on Thursday evening of last week. It was given at Codman Hall which was crowded to excess by a brilliant company. The entertainment commenced by the enactment of the "Hough Diamond" a very interesting play, the various parts of which were admirably sustained to the great gratification of the audience—Lord Plato was sustained by Hon N. Blake; Lady Plato, Miss J. Heagh; Sir William Evergreen, O. D. Homer; Margery, Miss Abbe Hunt; Capt. Blenheim, S. W. Hoskins; Cousin Joe, Dr Samuel Bradbury; and the actors certainly deserve credit for their skill in rendering the characters. After this, the seats and supper disappeared with marvellous celerity, and in a remarkable short time the hall was ready for the dancers, and the evenings entertainment was closed by a pleasant dance, in which a large number participated. The ladies of Oldtown certainly fully understand the science of making time pass pleasantly. Codman Hall is at the lower end of the town, connected with the Codman House, which is now under the successful management of Mr J. A. Bachelder, who does everything in his power to make his guests comfortable.

Police Court, Jan. 25.—Seventeen packages of liquor, taken from the store of J. Downe Jr., on the 19th of January, were condemned as being intended for illegal sale, and confiscated according to law.

At the recent distribution by lot of works of art, by the Cosmopolitan Art Association, our fellow citizens, Leonard Jones, Esq., and T. A. White, Esq., were fortunate enough to secure elegant oil paintings. Each of the numerous subscribers in our city received a copy of the splendid engraving the "Village Blacksmith," through the Honorary Secretary, D. M. Howard, Esq.

Artistical.—The last number of the Tri-weekly Age has finely executed portraits of a couple of administration democrats feeding at the public crib.

Railroad Matters at Augusta.—We copy the following statement from the Portland State of Maine, of Saturday. We have understood that the plan of last year would be modified somewhat as reported,—and that the new plan would be such as to secure the connection with the Provincial railways, and thus complete the Grand Trunk line from Halifax through Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and the entire length of our own State—connecting with the great lines through the United States and Canada. And this plan will at the same time secure a line from Milford into and through the lower part of Aroostook—the connection with the northern part of that country being had by the St. Andrews road, if that is continued so far up. The State of Maine says.—

"We learn from Augusta that the Joint Select Committee on the Aroostook Railway, propose to modify the plan of last year, so as to meet the existing feeling throughout the State. They propose to carry the line from Milford to the boundary of the State by the way of Lincoln and Mattawamkeag, at such point as will best suit the government and people of New Brunswick; and that before any State aid is asked, the Company is to extend the line one half the distance, and to give the State a lien on the whole for an advance of its credit on the balance, at the rate of $6,500 per mile.

"If the State can secure the European and North American line to St. John and Halifax, by an advance of its credit for $500 000, and at the same time secure 75 miles on the most direct line to Aroostook, all parties will readily agree to the plan."

List of the Sheriffs and Deputies for 1859.—Mr. W. C. Manning of Portland has published on a convenient card, a list of the newly elected Sheriffs and their Deputies. It will be sent through the Post Office, for 25 cents, postage paid.

Grand Division of S. of T.—The quarterly session of this body commenced at this place on Wednesday morning, the delegates numbering about one hundred. This is a larger meeting of this department of the order of the Sons of Temperance than has convened for eight years. Twenty Divisions have been organized during the quarter. The session continued on Thursday evening, and was characterized by the harmony and zeal which at this time everywhere pervade the order.—Waterville Mail.

Liquor Seizures at a Fire.—At West Mills, Industry, on the 18th, the dwelling house occupied by Benj. Learnard took fire about 3½ P. M.

When it was found that the house could not be saved, an effort was made to save whatever might be in the cellar by removing the burning timbers and throwing snow and water upon the floor.

When the fire had so far subsided that the cellar could be entered through the roll-way from the outside, the first prize discovered was some 9 or 10 casks of liquor of various kinds. An officer was procured and the liquors seized, though not without some difficulty, as it was evident the owner or his friends, had made an effort to spill or burn the liquors, when it was known that they would be siezed if saved.—But the officer succeeded in saving all but one cask.

Subsequently Learnard had his trial and was sentenced.

Gone Again.—John Merrill the horse thief who was convicted at the last term of the S. J. Court holden at Norridgewock, and who was laying in jail at that place awaiting some further decision in his case before being taken to the State Prison, made his escape on Wednesday night last, by breaking the lock of his door.—Somerset Tel.

Bad Name for an Officer.—One of the Deputy Sheriffs of Oxford County is Trueman Knight.

Hay.—The sudden rise of this article with us sets it moving in an unusual direction. A car load was recently transported from Gardiner to Skowhegan, on the train of the S. & K. railroad with a profit to the purchaser.—Waterville Mail

A Severe Kick.—Mr. Lincoln Keen of Lewiston had his lower jaw broken by a kick from a horse, last week.

A deer was killed in the town of Bowdoin, on Monday last.

Child Burned to Death.—On Tuesday afternoon, about 5 o clock, a little girl, aged 4 years, daughter of Mr John Merritt, of this town, was left alone for a few moments, when she took a candle and tried to light it; in doing so she set her dress (which was of cotton) on fire. Her screams brought the family to her assistance, who took her instantly out of doors and rolled her in the snow; but she was terribly burned before the flames were extinguished. The little one lingered in great agony until Wednesday at 2, P. M., when she died. We repeat what has been urged a thousand times before; that children should be clad in woolen dresses.—Brunswick Tel.

Light House on Grand Manan.—The Board of Works has advertised for tenders for building a Light House on Grand Manan, the tenders to be received until the 15th of March next. There is a very general feeling in this community, especially among those engaged in navigation, that a Light House on the northern head of Grand Manan, would be of very little use as compared with one on the Southern Wolf Island, where a light would be of great service to vessels going in and out of the Bay by the North Channel, and also be of advantage to vessels entering and leaving Passamaquoddy Bay and the harbors adjacent. —New Brunswicker.

Charles H. Foster, Esq., formerly of Orono and recently one of the editors of the Day Book, Norfolk, is now editor of the Murfreesboro' (N C) Citizen.

An Inebriate Murders his Wife. The Carleton, (N. B.) Sentinel says:

On Friday morning, the 21st inst., a man named Daniel Blaney, residing at Grand Falls beat and maltreated his wife in such a shocking manner that she died of injuries thus received on the same evening at 9 o'clock.

A correspondent of the St. John News says that Blaney (who is Parish Clerk, Assessor of Rates, &c., for Grand Falls,) was laboring under the effect of liquor at the time, and according to the dying testimony of his wife, he had been in the horrors for several days previous to committing the fiendish deed.

To the Hon. Legislature of Maine,

THE undersigned, owners of Township No 4, Range 5, West from the East line of the State, humbly represent that the lumber on the Eastern part of said township and the Eastern part of No 5, in the same Range, and some of the timber from Lincoln, is far from any navigable water, but might be driven conveniently out of Skitticook Stream, if that stream should be rendered drivable;—that said stream never has been driven and never can be without improvements which should consist in clearing out the rocks, trees and roots and in building three dams, one at the lake on the line between 4 and 5, and two side dams below. Your petitioners therefore pray to be incorporated under the name of the "Skitticook Dam Company", with power to make such improvements, and to take a toll on all logs driven out of said stream, of fifteen cents per thousand feet, board measure, at the woods' scale, until the expenses of said Company, with 12 per ct annual interest, are received, and then said toll to be reduced to four cents, to keep said works in repair.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.

SENATE.—To-day is set apart for District of Columbia business.

Previous to its being taken up however, Mr Gwin of Cal, made a motion to re-consider the vote on Pacific Railroad bill and prefaced his motion with a few remarks stating that his objection was to make the estimates advertised for more specific, to prevent straw bids and to include estimates for a branch to Oregon.

Mr Bell of Tenn, said a few words to show that the bill is adequate as it stands.

Mr Davis spoke in support of Mr Gwin's views.

Mr Stuart of Mich, moved to lay the motion on the table, but the hour of one o'clock arriving the vote thereon is postponed till Monday.

The subject of a horse railroad along Pennsylvania avenue was debated all day; the proposition to concede the right of the road to the Metropolitan Railroad Company was lost.

The motions now pending are—The District Committees bill to grant a concession of the road for 20 years to Messrs Vanderwerpen & Co. and the Douglas amendment to make over the right of the road to the corporation of the city. Finally there being no quorum present Mr Brown moved a call of the Senate but was prevailed on to withdraw it when the Senate adjourned

HOUSE.—The House went into Committee on private bills.

A message was received from the President enclosing a report from the Secretary of War, recommending repayment to Governor Stevens for the purchase of munitions and subsistence stores during the Indian war in Washington Territory

Mr Houston of Alabama asked leave to introduce a bill authorizing a loan of $15,000,000. Objections were made to this from the Republican side.

Mr. Palmer of New York asked leave to introduce a resolution instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to report a bill so revising the tariff as to make the revenue adequate to the expenses of the government economically administered, and discriminating in favor of American products, and substituting specific for ad valorem duties. Objections were made from the Democratic side, when the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.

The democratic Senators held a caucus this morning, on the subject of the tariff.

Mr Hunter offered a resolution declaring it inexpedient to change the law at the present session

Mr Bigler presented a substitute therefor as follows:

Resolved, That the revenue, being insufficient to meet the expenses of the government, it is wise and expedient to increase the import duties to meet the deficiency.

Mr Bigler's substitute was voted down, and Mr Hunter's resolution was adopted by a large majority

MAINE MAN DROWNED.—Derrick Bridgham Son of S. S. Bridgham, formerly of Lewiston, was drowned in Thompson River, Cal., about the middle of October last.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—The Biddeford Gazette gives the following particulars of the accident mentioned in our telegraphic columns:

"Mr. John Simpson, an Irishman in the employ of the Laconia Company, as a watchman, came to his death this forenoon in a very shocking manner. The circumstances are these:—While in the act of oiling a shaft in the basement of the mill, which makes one hundred and twenty revolutions per minute, he was caught by one arm and was whirled around the shaft, striking the ceiling at every revolution, until his arm was severed from his body. He was alone in the basement, but the sound made by his striking against the ceiling was noticed by persons in the weaving room above, who immediately proceeded to the place and discovered the body lying upon the ground, and the severed arm close by. He was probably killed almost instantly. Mr. Simpson had been in the employ of the company about eight years. He was a very temperate and industrious man, and had accumulated some property. He leaves a wife to mourn his sad death. His age was about 37 years.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.—Mr Granville Read, of Norway, had a narrow escape from death by burning on Tuesday morning. She had been watching the night previous, and was sitting by the fire, when her clothes caught, and before she could be pitherself was in a complete mass of flame. She endeavored to subdue it, but not succeeding, ran to an adjoining room where a sister and her husband slept.—Both the latter were badly burned in their efforts to rescue her, the husband more particularly, whose hands were so shockingly burned that the scars will last a lifetime. Little hopes were at first entertained of Mrs Read's recovery, but we learn that there is now some chance for her.—Portland Advertiser.

DARING ROBBERY.—$28,000 STOLEN. The treasurer of Coshocton county states that on Friday night last, about ten o'clock, while he was at work in his office, three men entered, and throwing a shawl over his head to prevent an alarm being made, took from him the keys of the safe. They then proceeded to ransack the safe, from which they carried off $4,000 in gold and silver, and about $16,000 in bank notes, mostly Ohio.—Cleveland Herald, 26th.

DEATH OF WILLIAM H. PRESCOTT.—The public will receive with deep sensation the announcement of the sudden death of William H. Prescott, the eminent Historian, which took place at his residence in Beacon street in this city, yesterday afternoon, about 2 o'clock. He was attacked with paralysis between 12 and 1 o'clock, and within the short space of time indicated, his mortal nature sunk before the disorder. Thus passes away one of the real celebrities of the present age.—Boston Journal, 29th.

Carrying the United States Mail.

5th and 20th of each month.

Through Tickets including transit of the Isthmus, via the Panama R R.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

On account of the numerous frauds and impositions on travelers, those bound to California are cautioned to buy tickets at the only authorized Agencies of the United States Mail Line as below.

By order of the Postmaster General, the United States Mail Steamers will hereafter be despatched from New York to Aspinwall, on the 5th and 20th of each month.

Passengers are landed at the Railroad Depot, Aspinwall, and conveyed across to the Pacific Steamers without any extra expense. This is the only line giving entire Through tickets, guaranteeing no detention on the Isthmus.

Transit made in four hours entirely by daylight, thus avoiding the great exposure by night in open boats to fever and ague, and 200 miles of dangerous lake and river navigation, over rocks and shoals.

Arrangements have now been completed so that the regular U S Pacific Mail Steamers will leave Panama for San Francisco immediately on arrival of the Atlantic Mail and passengers, thus securing passengers by the Mail Line a sure and short passage, with the greatest comfort and safety to health.

Tickets must be signed by one of the Company's Agents before they will be recognized by the Agent at Panama and tickets thus signed can be obtained of the only authorized Agent for the U S Mail and Pacific Mail Steamship Companies, in this city. C L BARTLETT, Agent, No. 16 Broad street, Boston.

LINCOLN'S WATER PROOF BLACKING, AND LEATHER PRESERVATIVE.

Keep your Feet dry and you will seldom need a Physician.

It is a truth that when the feet are often wet, it is one of the greatest causes of colds and consumption. It is a truth that when leather is often wet and dried, it soon becomes hard, stiff, and cracks, but when it is water proof there is no need. By the application of this preservative, it remains soft, and entirely impervious to water.

After being engaged for 25 years in the manufacture of Leather in all its branches, and being often troubled with wet feet myself, I was led to experimenting on different compositions, and found it easy to make it water proof, but at the same time extremely injurious to the leather. At last by a chemical process, I discovered a preparation which perfectly harmonizes with the saline properties with which leather is tanned. It will not only make leather water proof, but it likewise softens the leather, and it will positively wear twice as long.

I have now used it for three years and a large part of that time have worked in a wet Tannery with my boots constantly in water, and have not had my feet wet during that time. I can therefore in all confidence, recommend it to the public as the best article in the market.

THE LUXURY AND PROFIT OF HONEY MAKING.

Torrey's Bee Hive.

THE subscriber, having purchased the right of making and selling Davis' Patent Bee Hive for the Counties of Penobscot, Lincoln and Sagadahoc, which has been received with so much favor, and taken the first premiums wherever exhibited, has introduced an improvement into the Bee Hive and is now prepared to make the same in connection with the Davis Platform, and to sell rights to towns and individuals.

This Bee Hive, thus improved, is admitted by persons acquainted with the honey-making business to be superior to every thing yet invented for the purpose. It covers all the requisitions for the profitable maintenance of the apiary, by providing for ventilation at all seasons of the year—room for the exercise and feed of the bees—convenience for the removal of excrement, for the proper separation of the swarms, and generally for the health and comfort of the workers.

The boxes used in this Hive for storing honey, are the best adapted in their size, for the market, holding from three to six pounds each.

The subscriber wishes to purchase one hundred swarms of bees in exchange for bee-hives and individual rights.

For sale, fifty swarms of Bees, with the new hives.

For hives, individual rights, &c., address R. S. TORREY, Fifth-street, Bangor.

COD FISH, English and French Table Fish for sale by d24 T. J. STEWART.

American Safety Paper Manufacturing Company of N. Y.

Capital $500,000.

A. NICHOLAS, President. Office, 70 Wall-st.

A Perfect Security against all manner of Fraud or Counterfeiting on Paper—To Prevent Photographs and Anastatic Counterfeits, Erasures, Transfers or Alterations.

HAVING purchased the Patent for the exclusive right to manufacture and sell the Chemical Paper in America, invented and patented in England by HENRY GLYNN, a celebrated chemist and officer in the British army, it is hardly necessary to say that the Paper is recommended by Mr Kent, Assayer of the U S. Mint, Mr. Lyman of the New York Clearing House, and Meade Brothers, extensive and skillful photographers, 233 Broadway, N. Y. The latter say that no imitation can be made on a check or bank note printed on the Safety Paper. Below is our list of prices:

Bank Checks—35 cts per lb.
Bank Bills—$18 for 1000 sheets.
Bills of Exchange—$25 for 1000 sheets.
Promissory Notes—40 cts per lb.
Sight and Time Drafts—$25 for 1000 sheets.
Insurance Policies—40 cts per lb.
Railroad Stocks and Bonds—40 cts per lb.
Bank and State Stocks—40 cts per lb.
Bonds and Mortgages—40 cts per lb.
Wills and Deeds—40 cts per lb.

For wrapping Silks and other fine articles it is excellent, as it prevents moths 40 cts. a lb.

For Indentures and Agreements, 40 cts a lb.

All State and County Records should always be printed or written on this paper, as the chemicals inserted in the pulp not only prevent erasure or transfer, but makes it lasting as time.

For Southern climates it is excellent, and much superior to any other, as the moistness of the climate does not destroy it,—the properties inserted in the pulp being a preventive. In all the Southern States, Cuba, the West Indies, and the Central American States, no public records can be kept over 20 years, written on the ordinary paper, while the oils and other chemicals inserted in this paper makes it indestructible by the ravages of time. It is also proof against moths, rats and other vermin, which feast on and destroy all other paper now in use.

The Company have now in operation Mills in Morris County, N J, of about 300 horse power, and are able to fill all orders for Paper at the shortest notice.

All orders for the Paper must be addressed to A. NICHOLAS, President of the Company, No 70 Wall street, New York.

American & Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S Patent Office, Washington under the Act of 1837,)

76 State St., opposite Kilby St., BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also, in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS MASON,"
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"Boston, February 8, 1858

Mr R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGERT."

From Sept. 17th, 1857, to June 17th, 1858, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR.

PREPARED BY DR SANFORD,

Compounded entirely from Gums,

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND Liver Medicines now before the public.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented, by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Cholic, while

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all yellowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose often repeated cures Chronic Diarrhoea in its worst forms, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

Important to Horse Owners.

PORTSMOUTH, N H, May 20 1858

T C Butler, Esq

Dear Sir —During the last year I have sold some 300 packages of your Miller's Condition Powders for Horses and Colts, and in no instance that I have heard of, have they failed of giving entire satisfaction.

I regard them as standing at the head of all Horse medicines now in the market, and am sustained in this opinion by all the stable keepers and owners of horses who have used them in this vicinity.

I cheerfully give my testimony in favor of your Powders, and advise all interested to give them a trial. Very respectfully yours,

(Signed) WILLIAM H PRESTON, Apothecary

We, the undersigned fully concur in the above recommendation. (Signed)
